

CURRAHE!

Build your Band of Brothers!

CURRAHEE!

Here at Warlord Games, we love to push the boat out a bit, and make things that are a little unusual or off the wall.

Currahee! gives you all the tools you'll need to create the background for a member of the American 82nd or 101st Airborne prior to the parachute landings on the night of 5th June 1944.

All you'll need is a few six-sided dice and some notepaper. These characters are ideal for Firefight! campaigns, and for injecting a bit of character into your Bolt Action Armies.

Some of the tables presented in this publication use the unusual d66 to generate results. Simply roll 2d6, counting one as the "tens" digit, and the other as the "unit."

It may help to have two different colours of dice when rolling on these tables.

Place of Birth:

Your character's journey begins with their birthplace - roll 1d66 to find out where their story started!

Basic Training:

The training regimes instituted at Camp Toccoa in Georgia and Camp Clairborne in Louisiana were particularly gruelling - roll 1d6 to find out how your character fared!

Result	Experience
1	Washout: The character barely scraped through the Airborne's demanding regime of mental and physical training.
2-3	On the Awkward Squad: The character developed a reputation for incompetence that will follow them onto the battlefield.
4-5	Completely Cheesed: The character managed to keep his head above water and made it through basic without incident.
6	Eager Beaver: The character became renowned for their relentless enthusiasm, and all the extra work that came with it.

In England:

What did your character get up to while they were stationed at RAF Folkingham or RAF North Witham?

Result	Experience
2	Deserter: The character's cowardly nature got the better of them and they made a break for freedom, only to be apprehended by the MPs.
3-4	Good-Time Charlie: The character developed a reputation for incompetence that will follow them onto the battlefield.
5-6	Local Sweetheart: While fraternising with the local populace, this rose among thorns has captured the character's heart.
7-8	Crazy Prepared: The character has spent their time drilling for the battle to come and acquiring a small armoury of backup weapons.
9-10	Malcontent: Being cooped up on the landing field has done the character's attitude no favours - they spend their time stirring up trouble for their fellow soldiers.
11-12	Injury : The character suffered a bad injury, that almost caused them to miss the invasion!

Names:

Pretty self-explanatory; roll 2d66 to determine your character's first and second names.

2nd Lieutenant Lavern Harland, 82nd Airborne Born in Oregon, Lavern volunteered for the Airborne to escape the stifiling confines of civil service.

He struggled with the gruelling fitness regime at Camp Clairborne. Upon deployment to England, he has spent most of his time hoarding supplies and practicing with a snubnosed .38 Special sent to him by his father.

Lavern is a considerate and mild-mannered man, unable to stifle his excitement for the coming battle.

Sample Characters:

We've run through the creation process to produce two completely different soldiers - this should give you an idea of the finished product.

Private First Class Joe Everett, 101st Airborne
Born in California, Joe worked behind the counter in his father's grocery store - he volunteered for the Airborne to defend freedom.

He was always at the back of the pack, helping along those that struggled with the horrific physical training. This led to him being victimised by the drill instructors.

During his stay in England, he managed to injure himself on a practice jump.

Joe is a suave and handsome young man, with great reserves of charm and selflessness.
